

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, April 9

2001

NASA budget briefing, Center Director's all-hands Monday

The NASA fiscal year 2002 budget briefing will air in Morris Auditorium and on Centerwide television at 1 p.m. Monday. Immediately following the NASA Headquarters' budget briefing, Center Director Art Stephenson will discuss Marshall's budget outlook. All employees are encouraged to view the budget briefing in Morris Auditorium and attend the all-hands meeting.

Lunch tickets for April 24 STS-1 20th anniversary celebration on sale through admin officers

NASA's Mars Odyssey headed for October arrival at the Red Planet

Missouri, Kansas teams top 'Great Moonbuggy Race'

Graff Career Center in Springfield, Mo., rode to victory Friday in the high school division of NASA's 8th annual "Great Moonbuggy Race" at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center. Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kan., took top honors in the college division. Fifty-five teams from across the United States and Puerto Rico competed in the race.

Breast cancer awareness 'lunch, learn' Wednesday

A breast cancer awareness "lunch and learn" workshop will be held from 11 a.m.-noon Wednesday in Bldg. 4200, room P110. Marshall and contractor employees may attend. For reservations, call Rita Evans-McCoy at 544-7507.

To volunteer for 'NASA Goes to the Stars,' send an e-mail to Rosa Kilpatrick by Mon.